

Information pack for studios applications

Background Information

The Borlase Smart John Wells Trust is a charitable trust and a limited company, and it owns and manages studio buildings in St Ives and Newlyn. These provide a total of 22 studio spaces: 15 in St Ives, and 7 in Newlyn.

The Trust was set up in 1949 to acquire and manage Porthmeor Studios and Cellars. The building has provided studios and exhibition space for artists since the late nineteenth century, including several influential and internationally important figures such as Julius Olsson, Ben Nicholson, Patrick Heron, Terry Frost, Peter Lanyon, Francis Bacon, Wilhelmina Barns Graham and Roger Hilton. The Trust completed an award-winning £4 million programme of repairs and renovations at Porthmeor in 2012, and it continues to provide workspace for artists, fishermen and the St Ives School of Painting.

Trewarveneth Studios and Anchor Studio in Newlyn were bequeathed to the Trust following the death of the artist John Wells in 2000. Anchor Studio was built in 1888 as a purpose-built studio for the painter Stanhope Forbes, one of the founder members of the Newlyn School. John Wells purchased it from his widow in 1949, and later bought the neighbouring Trewarveneth Studios.

The Trust aims to provide opportunities for artists at all stages of their careers. It has recently set up the Porthmeor Artist Residency Programme for emerging and established artists, and arranges a series of Lunch Break talks, and is building links with galleries and other studio providers. Tenants will be encouraged to play a full part in this programme, which will include events such as Open Studios, workshops and lectures.

The Trust staff are:

Chris Hibbert, Manager.

Lucy Frears, Residency Manager.

Sarah Taylor, Trust Administrator.

Studio Information

The Trust has one studio at Porthmeor (Studio 18) which is available for a long tenancy from 1st October 2019.

Images and descriptions of the studio can be seen at <https://www.bsjwtrust.co.uk/studios/studio18/>

The Trust currently charges £61.45 + VAT/sq m for its studios, and the table below shows the area of the studio and its rent. Tenants are expected to pay rent by standing order monthly in advance.

Studios are individually metered for electricity and water, and tenants will be invoiced quarterly.

Tenants are responsible for business rates, which are collected by Cornwall Council. The government is offering a small business rates relief scheme, and currently no business rates are payable for qualifying small businesses who have registered.

Studio	Area sq. m.	Annual Rent	Incl VAT @20%	Rent/month (incl VAT)	Length of lease

Selection Policy

Applicants are invited to submit details of their practice as listed in the application requirements shown on page 4. The Trust will also consider applications from artists wishing to share a studio.

A Selection Panel is convened by the Trust comprising members who have considerable relevant experience, and it may invite applicants to attend an interview.

Selection is based on the following criteria:

- ◆ The quality of work.
- ◆ Evidence of the artist's serious approach to their work.
- ◆ Proven commitment to the development of their practice.
- ◆ A commitment to live and work in Cornwall during the tenancy.

Artists occupy space as tenants of the Trust. The lease is excluded from the security of tenure provisions of the Landlord and Tenants Act 1954, and so the tenant will not have a right to a new lease or compensation at the end of the term.
